Pastor's Letter

At the Martin Luther King, Jr. Prayer Breakfast at St. Mary's Academy, the Principal of this fine Catholic high school informed us that four of their seniors had received full scholarships to the University of Notre Dame in Indiana. I was pleasantly surprised to hear this because Notre Dame is an excellent Catholic university and these scholarships are worth well over $100,000 each!

But then I asked myself, to what other colleges did their students get accepted, and what about the other Catholic high schools in our area that accept graduates of Holy Name of Jesus School? So I called St. Mary's Academy, Loyola High School, Notre Dame Academy, Verbum Dei High School, Saint Genevieve High School, and Saint Bernard High School and asked the same question. Here is a partial list of the colleges and universities that have accepted graduates from these local Catholic high schools:

Harvard - Yale - Columbia - Dartmouth - Stanford - Spelman - Howard - University of California at Berkeley - UCLA - USC - Loyola Marymount University - University of San Diego - Florida A&M - California State University at Los Angeles - California State University at Long Beach - San Diego State University - and many others!

In order to get into one of these colleges, the students must be well prepared when they enter high school. Here at Holy Name of Jesus School we are preparing our children for high school, both academically and spiritually. Last Saturday our students received their high school acceptance letters and this is what the numbers look like:

Loyola High School = 2

Notre Dame Academy = 5

Saint Mary Academy = 2

Verbum Dei High School = 2

Saint Genevieve High School = 8

Saint Bernard High School = 1

Immaculate Heart = 1

Junipero Serra= 1

Bishop Mora Salesian = 1

I am so proud of all of our students and I am most grateful for our principal and all of our teachers and administrative staff. You have done a marvelous job!

Finally I want to thank everyone who has supported my decision to keep Holy Name of Jesus School as an elementary school offering grades Kindergarten through eight. As you know, this was a very difficult decision but I know that each day, "We are letting our light shine!"

May the Lord continue to bless us always and in all ways, Father Paul

Healthy Living...

March Is National Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month

At our Health Fair on February 21st, we were honored to have Dr. Timothy Simmons, Gastroenterologist, with us to share information about Colorectal Cancer Awareness. Dr. Simmons has made the commitment to educate communities about Colorectal Cancer. This month's Healthy Living column is dedicated to providing more about this important health issue.

When Should You Begin to Get Screened?

You should begin screening for colorectal cancer soon after turning 50, then continue getting screened at regular intervals. However, you may need to be tested earlier or more often than other people if:

- You or a close relative have had colorectal polyps or colorectal cancer; or
- You have inflammatory bowel disease.

If you are aged 50 or older, or think you may be at increased risk for colorectal cancer, speak with your doctor about getting screened.

The U.S. Preventive Services Task Force (USPSTF) recommends screening for colorectal cancer for all people until they reach 75 years old and for some people when they are older than 75. If you are in this age group, ask your doctor if you should be screened.

What Are the Screening Tests for Colorectal Cancer?

Several tests are available to screen for colorectal cancer. Some are used alone; others are used in combination with each other. Talk with your doctor about which test or tests are best for you. These screening tests are recommended by the USPSTF:

- Colonoscopy (every 10 years).
- High-sensitivity fecal occult blood test (FOBT) (every year).
- Flexible sigmoidoscopy (every 5 years).

In addition to these tests, some groups also recommend the double contrast barium enema as a screening test (every 5 years). Other tests are being evaluated and may be recommended by the USPSTF for use in colorectal cancer screening in the future, including CT colonography (also known as "virtual colonoscopy") and stool DNA testing.

DID YOU KNOW?Is Safety Training Effective for Kids?

Did you know that national and international studies show that children, who participated in prevention education programs like VIRTUS, were six to seven times more likely to demonstrate protective behavior – to be more assertive, speak up, and disclose abuse or suspected abuse – than children who had not participated in such programs? Research supports the effectiveness of abuse prevention training of our children. For more information about what our parish and school are doing to teach children to be safe, please contact the parish office or the Archdiocesan Safeguard the Children Office: (213) 637-7227.
